Pursuant to Rule 2016(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and D. Me. 16. As discussed in the Retention Application, the Amended Retention Application, and the Affidavit of Gerald F. Kandestin in Support of the Application for Order, Pursuant to Sections 327 and 328 of the Bankruptcy Code, Authorizing the Employment of Kugler Kandestin, LLP, as Special Counsel for the Trustee Nunc Pro Tunc to August 21, 2013 filed with the Retention Application, Kugler Kandestin is a law firm located in Montreal, Quebec. Pursuant to Local Rule 2016-1(a)(3)(v), a brief biography of each Kugler Kandestin professional who has rendered services in connection with the fees described herein is set forth in Exhibit B, annexed hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

17. This Fee Application is Kugler Kandestin's third application to this Court in this Case as special counsel to the Estate Representative for compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses pursuant to sections 328 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and Rule 2016-1 of the Local Rules. As required by paragraph (b)(v) of the UST Guidelines, the Estate Representative has been given the opportunity to review this Fee Application and has approved the requested amount.

18. Kugler Kandestin serves as special counsel to the Estate Representative with respect to all matters of Canadian law and procedure pertaining to the Case, as well as all matters of interest to the Estate Representative under the Canadian Case (as defined in the Retention Order). In rendering professional services to the Estate Representative, Kugler Kandestin's team includes professionals with extensive experience in cross-border insolvency, both in providing local representation in foreign insolvency filings, as well as working with counsel in other jurisdictions. Kugler Kandestin's professionals have worked closely with the Estate Representative and his other professionals to coordinate assignments in order to maximize efficiency and avoid any duplication of effort.

19. As set forth in greater detail in the Billing Statement, Kugler Kandestin's services included: (a) corresponding and coordinating with Courts in New Brunswick, Canada and process servers with respect to court documents and research regarding court dockets related thereto; (b) obtaining and reviewing various Québec proceedings (English and French) which have been filed and corresponding with the Estate Representative's office with respect thereto; (c) corresponding with Estate Representative's office with respect to research on Canadian law, effecting such research, preparing memorandums on such research and discussions thereon; and (d) advising the Estate Representative on matters of Canadian law.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY DISBURSEMENTS

20. As set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto, Kugler Kandestin has disbursed CAD 1,088.11 as expenses incurred in providing professional services during the Compensation Period. The expenses incurred arise from, inter alia, courier costs, copying costs, court fees, court record searches and process server fees. These expenses represent the out-of-pocket disbursements incurred during the regular course of the provision of legal services.

THE REQUESTED COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES SHOULD BE ALLOWED ON AN INTERIM BASIS

21. Pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may award professionals “reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services.” 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(A). In evaluating the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded, the Court should consider:

the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors including:

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. §§ 330(a)(3)(A–F).

22. Kugler Kandestin submits that the services for which it seeks compensation in this Fee Application were necessary for and beneficial to the Post-Effective Date Estate. The services rendered by Kugler Kandestin were performed economically, effectively, and efficiently. Accordingly, the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Debtor.

23. The work conducted was carefully assigned to appropriate professionals or paraprofessionals according to the experience and level of expertise required for each particular task. Whenever possible and where appropriate, Kugler Kandestin sought to minimize the cost of its services by utilizing talented professionals with lower billing rates.

24. In sum, the services rendered by Kugler Kandestin were necessary and beneficial to the Post-Effective Date Estate and such services were consistently performed in a timely manner, commensurate with the complexity and nature of the issues involved. Accordingly, approval of compensation sought herein is warranted.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Kugler Kandestin respectfully requests that the Court enter an order: (a) approving on an interim basis, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330, CAD 20,644.96 in fees and expenses for Kugler Kandestin in its capacity as special counsel to the Estate Representative during the Compensation Period, consisting of (i) compensation for services rendered in the amount of CAD 8,125.00 and (ii) reimbursement of expenses in the amount of CAD 1,088.11; and (b) granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
