DISTRICT OF MAINE

In re:	§
MONTREAL MAINE & ATLANTIC	§	CHAPTER 11
RAILWAY, LTD.	§	CASE NO. 13-10670

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PROOF OF CLAIM
BY CREDITOR ESTATE OF JEAN SEBASTIEN JACQUES, AND ALL HEIRS OF THE ESTATE OF JEAN SEBASTIEN JACQUES

COMES NOW, Estate of Jean Sebastien Jacques, and all heirs of the Estate of Jean Sebastien Jacques (hereinafter jointly referred to as “Jacques Creditors”), and moves this Court to grant an extension of time to file a Proof of Claim. In support of this motion, Jacques Creditors state as follows:

1. Jean Sebastien Jacques was present the evening of the tragedy of Lac-Megantic. Although Jean Sebastien Jacques escaped death that night, the severe PTSD and depression finally overcame him and he died on September 25, 2015. In fact, Mr. Jacques was one of the individuals that videoed the scene on the night of the tragedy as he was running away, which was aired on television and all over the internet.

2. Until Jean Sebastien Jacques died, the Estate and heirs (Andre Jacques and Keven Jacques), had no claim to file until his death on September 25, 2015 (See Obituary – French/English - Exhibit “A”).

3. Counsel for Jacques Creditors are based in Beaumont, Texas, and presently represents other Creditors in this matter.

4. Counsel for the Jacques Creditors have previously submitted 113 Proofs of claim in a timely fashion prior to the June 13, 2014 deadline.

5. Under Bankruptcy Rule 9006(b)(1), this Court can grant a motion for extension of time to file “where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect.” What constitutes excusable neglect is an equitable determination that allows this court to “accept late filings caused by inadvertence, mistake, or carelessness, as well as by intervening circumstances beyond the party’s control. Pioneer Investment Services Co. v. Brunswick Associates, L.P., 507 U.S. 380, 388 (1993). Moreover, factors to be considered in determining if excusable neglect standard has been met include length of delay and its potential impact on judicial proceedings, the reason for the delay, including whether it was within the reasonable control of the movant, and whether the movant acted in good faith. Id. Excusable neglect requires an inquiry into the actions of both the creditor and their counsel. Id. Here, Jacques Creditors should be allowed to move forward because his failure to file a timely Proof of Claim is a result of the fact that the Jacques Creditors' Claim did not come into existence until the time of his death on September 25, 2015. Courts generally consider four factors in deciding whether a claimant has established excusable neglect. In re Garden Ridge Corp., 348 B.R. at 645, citing Hefta v. Official Comm. Of Unsecured Creditors (In re American Classic Voyages Co.), 405 F.3 133 (3d Cir. 2005). These factors include (i) the danger of prejudice to the debtor; (ii) the length of delay and its impact on the judicial proceedings; (iii) the reason for the delay, including whether the delay was within the reasonable control of the movant; and (iv) whether the creditor acted in good faith. Id. "All factors must be considered and balanced; no one factor trumps the others." Id. Certainly, there is no prejudice to the debtor here and there will be no delay at all. The Creditor has acted in good faith since the claim could not be filed until after September 25, 2015, when the Decedent died.

6. Further, the impact on the Tort Trust will be minimal. The inquiry into excusable neglect is an equitable one. Balancing the equities of the Tort Trust's costs against Creditor's complete bar to recover clearly weights in favor of Jacques Creditors. Moreover, Jacques Creditors will likely only qualify for approximately 2.5% - 3% of the total awarded to all wrongful death claims or less. Therefore, his impact on the Tort Trust settlement would be minimal. This will not dilute the claims detrimentally, especially considering the arguments of Defendants' counsel as to the relative value of the claims in Canada.

7. It is also Counsel's understanding that Judge Dumas in the Canadian proceedings has asked the question as to whether these suicides will be added to the claims. In addition, the Court in Canada has already allowed approximately 200 late claims and is considering another 400 late claims to be heard in November, 2015 (See email attached as Exhibit "B" from Class Counsel, Joel Rochon, regarding same). It is the understanding of counsel that Judge Dumas will likely allow the filing of another 400 claims as well for a total of almost 600 late filed claims. (These are individuals that did not die and whose claims have existed for more than two years). It would not be equitable to allow these 600 non-priority claims and deny this priority death claim that did not exist until September 25, 2015.

8. The Proofs of Claim Forms for the Estate of Jean Sebastien Jacques, Andre' Jacques and Keven Jacques are attached hereto as Exhibit "C".

WHEREFORE, Jacques Creditors and Tafisa Canada respectfully request this Honorable Court grant this Motion and allow them to submit a Proof of Claim within ten (10) days of the granting of this motion, or such other later date as the Court deems proper, and any further relief this Court deems just.

Date: October 13, 2015

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the Claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a).

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for claims based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement or secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent. INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROOF OF CLAIM FORM

The instructions and definitions below are general explanations of the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases not filed voluntarily by the debtor, exceptions to these general rules may apply.

Items to be completed in Proof of Claim form

Court, Name of Debtor, and Case Number:

Fill in the federal judicial district in which the bankruptcy case was filed (for example, Central District of California), the debtor's full name, and the case number. If the creditor received a notice of the case from the bankruptcy court, all of this information is at the top of the notice.

Creditor's Name and Address:

Fill in the name of the person or entity asserting a claim and the name and address of the person who should receive notices issued during the bankruptcy case. A separate space is provided for the payment address if it differs from the notice address. The creditor has a continuing obligation to keep the court informed of its current address. See Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) 2002(g).

1. Amount of Claim as of Date Case Filed:

State the total amount owed to the creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. Follow the instructions concerning whether to complete items 4 and 5. Check the box if interest or other charges are included in the claim.

2. Basis for Claim:

State the type of debt or how it was incurred. Examples include goods sold, money loaned, services performed, personal injury/wrongful death, car loan, mortgage note, and credit card. If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information. You may be required to provide additional disclosure if an interested party objects to the claim.

3. Last Four Digits of Any Number by Which Creditor Identifies Debtor:

State only the last four digits of the debtor's account or other number used by the creditor to identify the debtor.

3a. Debtor May Have Scheduled Account As:

Report a change in the creditor's name, a transferred claim, or any other information that clarifies a difference between this proof of claim and the claim as scheduled by the debtor.

3b. Uniform Claim Identifier:

If you use a uniform claim identifier, you may report it here. A uniform claim identifier is an optional 24-character identifier that certain large creditors use to facilitate electronic payment in chapter 13 cases.

4. Secured Claim:

Check whether the claim is fully or partially secured. Skip this section if the claim is entirely unsecured. (See Definitions.) If the claim is secured, check the box for the nature and value of property that secures the claim, attach copies of lien documentation, and state, as of the date of the bankruptcy filing, the annual interest rate (and whether it is fixed or variable), and the amount past due on the claim.

5. Amount of Claim Entitled to Priority Under 11 U.S.C. § 507 (a).

If any portion of the claim falls into any category shown, check the appropriate box(es) and state the amount entitled to priority. (See Definitions.) A claim may be partly priority and partly non-priority. For example, in some of the categories, the law limits the amount entitled to priority.

6. Credits:

An authorized signature on this proof of claim serves as an acknowledgment that when calculating the amount of the claim, the creditor gave the debtor credit for any payments received toward the debt.

7. Documents:

Attach redacted copies of any documents that show the debt exists and a lien secures the debt. You must also attach copies of documents that evidence perfection of any security interest and documents required by FRBP 3001(c) for claims based on an open-end or revolving consumer credit agreement or secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence. You may also attach a summary in addition to the documents themselves. FRBP 3001(c) and (d). If the claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit disclosing confidential health care information. Do not send original documents, as attachments may be destroyed after scanning.

8. Date and Signature:

The individual completing this proof of claim must sign and date it. FRBP 9011. If the claim is filed electronically, FRBP 5005(a)(2) authorizes courts to establish local rules specifying what constitutes a signature. If you sign this form, you declare under penalty of perjury that the information provided is true and correct to the best of your knowledge, information, and reasonable belief. Your signature is also a certification that the claim meets the requirements of FRBP 9011(b). Whether the claim is filed electronically or in person, if your name is on the signature line, you are responsible for the declaration. Print the name and title, if any, of the creditor or other person authorized to file this claim. State the filer's address and telephone number if it differs from the address given on the top of the form for purposes of receiving notices. If the claim is filed by an authorized agent, provide both the name of the individual filing the claim and the name of the agent.
