Chapter 11

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Robert J. Keach, the chapter 11 trustee<sup>1</sup> (the “Trustee”) of Montreal Maine & Atlantic Railway, Ltd. (“MMA” or the “Debtor”), hereby appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8001(b) and 8004 from the Order Sustaining in Part and Overruling in Part Trustee’s Objection to Proofs of Claim Filed by New Brunswick Southern Railway Company Limited and Maine Northern Railway Company Limited on the Basis that Certain of Such Claims are Duplicative of Others, and Such Others are Improperly Asserted as Administrative and/or Priority Claims entered in the above-captioned case on February 26, 2016 [D.E. 2034] (the “Order”) holding that Claim 257-1 filed by Maine Northern Railway Company Limited and Claim 259-1 filed by New Brunswick Southern Railway Company Limited are, to the extent allowed, afforded priority status under 11 U.S.C. § 1172(b). A true and correct copy of the Order is attached hereto as Exhibit A, and a copy of the transcript of the oral findings of fact and conclusions of law is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

The names of all parties to the Order and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of their respective attorneys are as follows:

<sup>1</sup> In accordance with the Trustee’s Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation, dated July 15, 2015 (As Amended on October 8, 2015) [D.E. 1822] (the “Plan”), upon the Effective Date of the Plan (which occurred on December 22, 2015, see D.E. 1927), Robert J. Keach is no longer the chapter 11 trustee of the Debtor’s estate, but is the Estate Representative of the Post-Effective Date Estate (as defined in the Plan). See Plan § 6.1(a). For the sake of continuity, Mr. Keach will continue to be referred to as the chapter 11 trustee.

ORDER SUSTAINING IN PART AND OVERRULING IN PART TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION TO PROOFS OF CLAIM FILED BY NEW BRUNSWICK SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY LIMITED AND MAINE NORTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY
LIMITED ON THE BASIS THAT CERTAIN OF SUCH CLAIMS ARE DUPLICATIVE
OF OTHERS, AND SUCH OTHERS ARE IMPROPERLY ASSERTED AS ADMINISTRATIVE AND/OR PRIORITY CLAIMS

This matter came before the Court on the Trustee's Objection to Proofs of Claim Filed by New Brunswick Southern Railway Company Limited and Maine Northern Railway Company Limited on the Basis that Certain of Such Claims Are Duplicative of Others, and Such Others Are Improperly Asserted as Secured and/or Priority Claims (the "Objection") (Docket Entry "DE" 1826) filed by Robert J. Keach, the chapter 11 trustee (the "Trustee") of Montreal Maine & Atlantic Railway, Ltd. (the "Debtor" or "MMA"), in relation to (a) Proofs of Claim No. No. 242-1 (the "MN Duplicate Claim") and 257-1 ("Claim 257") filed by Maine Northern Railway Company Limited ("MN Railway") and (b) Proofs of Claim No. 243-1 ("NB Duplicate Claim," and together with the MN Duplicate Claim, the "Duplicate Claims") and 259-1 ("Claim 259," and together with Claim 257, the "Asserted 1171(b) Claims") filed by New Brunswick Southern Railway Company Limited ("NB Railway", and together with MN Railway, the "Claimant Railways"). After such notice and opportunity for hearing as was required by the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Code"), the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the Local

Bankruptcy Rules for the District of Maine, and after due consideration of, among other things, the Objection, the Response of the Claimant Railways to the Objection (DE 1855), the Trustee's Reply (DE 1878), the Stipulations of the parties (the "Stipulations") (DE 1877), the admissions and other filings of the parties, and the testimony and documentary evidence presented at the November 20, 2015 evidentiary hearing held in this matter (the "Hearing"); and for the reasons set forth on the record by the Court on February 5, 2016<sup>1</sup>, the Court made certain findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7002. Several of those factual findings and conclusions of law are as follows<sup>2</sup>:

A. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a) and 1334(b), and Rule 83.6 of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Maine, this Court has jurisdiction over the Objection, including but not limited to, the Asserted 1171(b) Claims and the Duplicate Claims.

B. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), and the Court has constitutional authority to enter judgment in this matter.

C. Pursuant to the Stipulations, the only issue addressed at the Hearing was whether the Asserted 1171(b) Claims qualify as "six-month" claims entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §1171(b) of the Code. If so, the amount of such claims would be determined at a subsequent hearing, if required.

D. Based upon the unique facts of this matter and the Court's analysis of the equities asserted by MMA, on the one hand, and the Claimant Railways, on the other, the Claimant Railways met their burden of establishing that the Asserted 1171(b) Claims qualify as claims that are entitled to priority under §1171(b) of the Code because:

<sup>2</sup> This Order does not enumerate all of the factual findings and conclusions of law set forth at the Hearing and no special significance is intended by that fact.

(1) the Asserted 1171(b) Claims represent current operating expenses that were necessarily incurred by MMA in connection with its on-going operations;

(2) the Asserted 1171(b) Claims were incurred within six months prior to the commencement of this case; and

(3) the services that are the subject of the Asserted 1171(b) Claims were provided to MMA with the expectation that they would be paid for out of the current operating revenues of MMA, and not in reliance on its general creditworthiness.

For these reasons, as well as those set forth on the record at the Hearing, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

1. The Objection is sustained in part and overruled in part, as set forth herein.
2. The Duplicate Claims shall be disallowed in their entireties and expunged from the Debtor's claims register.
3. The Asserted 1171(b) Claims, to the extent allowed, are afforded priority status under § 1171(b). The amount of the Asserted 1171(b) Claims is not determined by this Order, and thus those Asserted 1171(b) Claims are not allowed in any amount at this time. The Trustee's rights to object to the amount of the Asserted 1171(b) Claims are fully reserved.
4. Notwithstanding the minute entry at DE 1947, this Order constitutes the Court's ruling and judgment on the matters read into the record on February 5, 2016. The time period within which parties must appeal this Order in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules thus runs from the date hereof.

THE CLERK: -- the honorable Peter Gary presiding.

Be seated.

THE COURT: Good morning.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Good morning.

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Good morning.

THE COURT: We're here on the Montreal Maine & Atlantic Railway Ltd case, Chapter 11, case number 13-10670. And we have Ms. Zahradka and Mr. Keach here for -- or on behalf of the trustee.

Good morning.

MS. ZAHRADKA: Good morning, Your Honor.

MR. KEACH: Good morning.

THE COURT: And do we have Mr. Lepene on the phone for New Brunswick Southern and Maine Northern or Northern Maine?

MR. LEPENE: Yes, Your Honor. Good morning.

THE COURT: Good morning.

So I'm going to read an oral decision this morning. I'm also going to read parts of the stipulation. I'm doing this to try to put in one place the complete decision. In that case, if there's further review, at least a reviewing Court can initially look to just one place. So it's for that convenience.

So this is my oral decision concerning the

1 objections of Chapter 11 Trustee Robert J. Keach, Trustee to 2 the proofs of claim filed by Maine Northern Railway Company, 3 Maine Northern, and the New Brunswick Southern Railway
4 Company, LTD, New Brunswick. I may refer to these railways
5 collectively as claimant railways. I note at the hearing 6 and in some of the various pleadings, sometimes they're 7 referred to as the Irving Railroad.

8 The claimant railways assert that certain of their 9 claims against the debtor, Montreal Maine & Atlantic 10 Railway, Ltd., Debtor for MMA, are priority claims under 11 11 U.S.C. Section 1171(b). When I refer to section numbers on 12 their own, I'm referring to the bankruptcy format from 1978 13 code. This decision contains my findings of fact and 14 conclusions of law in accordance with Federal Rule of 15 Bankruptcy Procedures 7002.

16 In reaching this decision, I've considered, among 17 other things, the trustee's written objections, document -- 18 or docket entry 1826; the joint response of the claimant 19 railways, 1855; the trustee's reply, 1878; the stipulations 20 of the parties, 1877; the admissions and other filings of 21 the parties in this case; and the evidence presented at the 22 November 20th, 2015 testimonial hearing, which evidence 23 included the admitted exhibits and the testimony of Carl 24 Hansen (ph), general manager of Corporate Credit Financial 25 for all the Irving companies, including the claimant

1 railways, and Ian Simpson, general manager of the claimant 2 railways.

3 Actually, I'd like to take one minute and thank 4 the parties and their counsel for the materials you provided 5 to me. They're excellent. They were very helpful.
6 Notwithstanding they disagreed with each other, but they 7 were very helpful.

8 And I also want to thank the attorneys and the 9 witnesses for the excellent presentation at the hearing.
10 I've only been a judge for a year -- two years and a month, 11 but I found that one of the most professional, thorough, 12 civil, and efficient hearings I've had the pleasure to 13 preside over.

14 Background -- one thing you did to make my job 15 easier is that you provided certain stipulations, which 16 helped to focus the hearing, focus my analysis. Those 17 stipulations are set forth, as I said, in 1877 for trying to 18 unify the record in one place. I'm going to repeat some of 19 them here. To the extent there's any discrepancy between 20 what I say here and those listed at 1877, 1877 controls.
21 Here they are.

22 Maine Northern's proof of claim, 242-1, and New 23 Brunswick's proof of claim, 243-1, the duplicate claims, are 24 withdrawn and expunged in their entirety from MMA's claims 25 register. Maine Northern's proof of claim, 257-1, and New

1 Brunswick's proof of claim, 259-1, are not withdrawn and are 2 referred to today as the 1171(b) claims. For purposes of 3 resolving the objection to the 1171(b) claims, the Wheeling 4 and Lake Erie Railway Companies at all times held valid 5 security interests in the debtor's accounts receivable and 6 certain inventory and proceeds to secure obligations due 7 under a line of credit and a (ph) security agreement dated 8 in June of 2009.

9 MMA was a participating railroad in the Interline 10 Settlement System, the ISS. Claimant railways weren't. The 11 ISS provides a certain central clearinghouse for 12 participating railroads involved in the interchange of 13 freight traffic among multiple rail carriers to settle 14 accounts receivable and accounts payable arising from the 15 interchange of such traffic.

16 Railroads participating in the ISS that originate 17 traffic are known as billing railroads, and they invoice the 18 customer for all freight charges from the point of origin to 19 the point of destination, even if the shipment is 20 interchanged with other railroads along the route.

21 Customers are responsible for paying the billing railroad 22 the entire invoice, and the billing railroad is responsible 23 for paying the other railroads involved in the shipment 24 their share of the proceeds representing the freight charges 25 earned by them.

1           Railroads that participate in the ISS calculate on 2 a monthly basis the accounts receivable and accounts payable 3 arising from the interchange of traffic that are due and 4 owing each participant. The payment of the net amount due 5 and owing is made on the second business day of each month.
6 By agreement with the claimant railways, MMA acted as the 7 billing railroad. When either claimant railway originated
8 traffic, it interchanged with MMA as well as when MMA 9 originated traffic, it interchanged with either of the 10 claimant railroads.

11           MMA also collected from the ISS freight revenue 12 attributable to freight services provided by the claimant 13 railways in connection with shipments originated by other 14 carriers that were interchanged by such carriers with MMA 15 and by MMA with the claimant railways. For the purposes of 16 the claims, parties stipulated that, other than $1,952
17 claimed by New Brunswick for repair of cars owned or leased 18 by the debtor other than 5,146 claimed by Maine Northern for 19 repair of cars owned or leased by the debtor, inspection 20 services provided by Maine Northern, the claims of the 21 claimant railways, if any, result from the fact that MMA 22 collected funds, either directly from customers or via the 23 ISS, and did not pay amounts to the claimant railways.

24           The Irving Companies, as defined as Irving Pulp & 25 Paper, Ltd, Irving Paper, Ltd, and J.D. Irving, Ltd are

1 affiliates of both of the claimant railways and customers of 2 MMA. During the six-month period preceding the filing, 3 claimant railways and the Irving Paper Companies, on the one 4 hand, MMA, on the other, would settle their respective 5 accounts receivable and accounts payable by arranging 6 concurrent exchange of wire transfers and checks.

7 The issue before me is whether the claims asserted 8 by the claimant railways in the 1171(b) claims qualify as 6-9 month claims titled to priority under 1171(b). The amount 10 of such claims shall be determined at a subsequent hearing, 11 if required. So in addition to these stipulations, I found 12 the following -- I find that the following facts were 13 established at the hearing or otherwise. And by otherwise, 14 I mean they may have been determined by the prior filings or 15 prior representations. And those facts are as follows.

16 The MMA claimants railway business relationship 17 began approximately in 2003. As the debtor indicated in its 18 first amended disclosure statement, from January 2003 until 19 May 2014, the debtor and the wholly owned Canadian 20 subsidiary, MMA Canada, operated on an integrated 21 international short line freight railroad system. This 22 system originally included 510 route miles of track in 23 Maine, Vermont, Quebec and were operated from the debtor's 24 principle office in Hermon, Maine.

25 The system was a substantial component of the 1 transportation systems in Northern Maine, Northern New 2 England, Quebec, and New Brunswick. And it provided the 3 shortest rail transportation route between Maine and 4 Montreal and was a critical rail artery between St. John and 5 New Brunswick and Montreal.

6 In 2003, at the time when MMA and the claimant 7 railways began doing business, Mr. Hansen had concerns that 8 MMA would not be able to pay Irving. MMA and the claimant 9 railways established a weekly payment swap system. In 10 Mr. Hansen's words, quote, "Basically, Irving Paper and 11 Irving Pulp & Paper's funds would flow into my department 12 once a week. We'd get hold of MMA, and we'd agree that 13 simultaneously I'd send them their wire transfer and they 14 would the same second send the wire transfer back to me for 15 monies owed to New Brunswick Southern," end quote.

16 In terms of the amount of cash that was being sent 17 from Irving to MMA compared to the amount of cash that MMA 18 was sending to Irving, Irving's was by far larger initially.
19 These transfers were done virtually simultaneously.
20 Mr. Hansen's stated reason for establishing this -- agreeing 21 to this system was that he was determined that the claimant
22 railways were not going to rely on MMA's credit to make sure 23 they got paid.

24 Mr. Simpson testified that the decision not to 25 participate in the ISS was not influenced by the credit

1       worthiness of MMA. The claimant railways could have 2       withheld transferring money to MMA by wire if MMA did not 3       pay the amounts due to Irving.

4                Until June or July of 2012 this arrangement 5       worked. Then things changed. As the debtor described in 6       the first amended disclosure statement, in the two years 7       leading up to the commencement of this case, the debtor -- 8       the Chapter 11 case -- the debtor benefited from a dramatic 9       increased use of trains to move oil from the Central and 10      Western regions of the U.S. to refineries in the East.

11               United States and Canadian oil drillers were 12      producing oil faster than the new pipelines could be built.
13      Trains were needed to transport crude oil to refineries.
14      Prior to the derailment, the debtor had been hauling 500,000 15      barrels of oil monthly through Quebec and Maine. Due to 16      this business, the debtor enjoyed a significant increase in 17      gross revenue. For a short time, positive net operating 18      income, although needed (ph), capital expenditures remained 19      deferred and underfunded.

20               This resulted in an increase in oil shipments
21      carried by the MMA and interchanged with the claimant 22      railways for delivery to St. John. Beginning in 2012, the 23      amounts owed by MMA for interline freight services provided 24      by the claimant railways began to exceed the amounts owed by 25      Irving to MMA. As Mr. Hansen put it at trial, "Well, the

1 shipment of oil would have been coming out of the Dakotas by 2 C.T. They would hit MMA's line."

3 "They would interchange with MMA. Then the oil
4 would come. The train would come down through until it hit 5 New Brunswick Southern's line. New Brunswick Southern would 6 transport it then into St. John, New Brunswick. And the 7 cost, our share, Irving's share -- it would bring it from 8 where we would interfaced with St. John, became excessive, 9 quite high."

10 Turning to the burden of proof, I don't think 11 that's any -- of any dispute. Section 502(a) provides that, 12 quote, "A claim or interest, proof of which is filed under 13 Section 501 of this title, is deemed allowed unless a party
14 and interest objects," end quote. If an objection is filed 15 in court after notice and hearing, quote, "shall allow such 16 claim, except to the extent the claim is unenforceable 17 against the debtor, property of the debtor," end quote.
18 That's 502(b)(1).

19 The burden is on the objecting party to put forth 20 evidence sufficient to negate the prima facie validity of 21 the claim. If the objecting party produces such evidence, 22 the burden shifts back to the claimant to prove the validity 23 of its claim by a preponderance of the evidence. Given the 24 travel of this case, I conclude the burden is on the 25 claimant railways to establish that their claims are

1 priority claims under Section 1171(b).

2 Trustee argues that these claims fail for several 3 reasons. Generally, the reasons are, one, interline charges 4 are per se unsecured claims as a matter of law; two, 5 claimant railways have failed to establish that the 6 interline charges were necessary operating expenses of MMA; 7 three, the claimant railways failed to establish that they 8 provided services or goods to MMA with the expectation that 9 they'd be paid for current operating revenues, not in 10 reliance on MMA's general credit worthiness.

11 As a sort of subset of this argument, the trustee 12 asserted that the claimant railways established a, quote, 13 "special security arrangement," end quote, with MMA, which 14 exempts them from the protections of the six-months rule.
15 I'll address those three arguments in that order.

16 One, interline charges cannot be 1171(b) claims as 17 a matter of law. Obviously, I've got to first look at 18 1171(b), which provides, quote, "any unsecured claim against 19 the debtor that would have been entitled to priority, if a 20 receiver in equity of the property of the debtor had been 21 appointed by federal court on the date of the order for 22 relief on its title shall be entitled to the same priority 23 in the case of its chapter (ph)," end quote.

24 This section codified a long-established equitable 25 doctrine called the six-months rule applied in railroad

1 receivership cases that permitted receivers to pay certain 2 necessary expenses incurred in the period immediately
3 preceding the receivership. See in re: Boston and Maine 4 Corp., 634 F.2d 1359, 1366 through 79.

5 As is clear -- or maybe not so clear -- from the 6 language of this rule, it does not set forth terms or 7 conditions which give rise to a priority. There's no test 8 to do. That job is left to the courts.

9 In the Boston and Maine II case, the one that I
10 cited a minute ago, 634 F.2d 1359, is a good place to start.
11 That Court wrote that, "A claim will be entitled to priority 12 under 1171(b) when it, one, represents a current operating 13 expense necessarily incurred; two, was incurred within six 14 months before the reorganization petition was filed; and 15 three, the goods or services were delivered in the 16 expectation that they would be paid for out of current 17 operating revenues of the railroad and not in reliance on 18 the railroad's general credit." I note at the outset -- 19 that's the end of the three-part test.

20 I note at the outset that this is not necessarily 21 an easy concept to apply, which might have explained why at 22 the end of oral argument, after hearing the exact same 23 evidence and hearing the same testimony, both Mr. Lepene and 24 you, Mr. Keach, argued that the answer was clear. And I had 25 to do then -- what I had to do was different. And I

1 struggled with that. And I think Courts have struggled with 2 that.

3 I found at least one commentator in Five
4 Bankruptcy Services LED, Section 46:67 say something I 5 thought was observant. Quote, "It is difficult, it not 6 impossible, to identify from prior decisions any unified 7 principle or group of principles to be applied when claimant 8 requests priority for prepetition claim in railroad 9 reorganization pursuant to 1171(b). Each case has been 10 decided based on its unique facts and Courts' analysis of 11 equities asserted by the competing parties."

12 So the trustee argues that -- let me just make 13 sure I have something here. Turning to the first argument 14 of the trustee. Trustee argues that the freight services 15 provided to MMA in connection with the interline rail 16 shipments cannot, as a matter of law, constitute 1171(b)
17 claims. I disagree.

18 I read Boston and Maine II to have reversed the 19 decision of District Court, which denied priority treatment 20 of the claims of interlining railroads which sought six-21 month priority status for their per diem claims. Other 22 Courts have done that also. Finance Company vs. Charleston, 23 62 F. 205.

24 So my conclusion was that, as a matter of law, the 25 mere fact that the claims are for interline freight services

1 does not exclude them from possible priority consideration.
2 So if the claimant railways can -- I find they pass that 3 first challenge by the trustee. And if the claimant 4 railways can satisfy the judicially established three 5 elements required for the 1171(b) claims, then they're 6 entitled to priority treatment. So let's turn to that.

7 Looking first at the necessity of the charges, the 8 testimony of Mr. Hansen and Mr. Simpson as well as the 9 debtor's statements in its first amended disclosure 10 statement lead me to conclude that the claimant railways
11 meet this element. The testimony by Mr. Simpson established 12 that the inability of MMA to interchange traffic with the 13 claimant railways on the, quote, "critical rail artery," 14 quote, between St. John and Montreal would have had a 15 significant adverse effect on MMA's operations, including, 16 among other things, the possible loss of business with 17 Irving as well as a reduction in revenue.

18 Ian Simpson testified at trial regarding the 19 freight services provided to MMA. He confirmed the 20 importance of MMA -- importance to MMA of the critical rail 21 artery between Montreal and St. John. He characterized it 22 as the most direct, economical, and practical route for the 23 shipment of oil to the refineries in St. John.

24 At trial, he further testified that the impact on 25 MMA's operation if they had been unable to interchange

1 traffic with the Irving Railroad, would have been 2 significant in negative ways. He also testified that the 3 only way that MMA could get traffic into St. John would be 4 through the claimant railways' lines for final delivery. In 5 cross-examination by the trustee, he did admit it would not 6 be impossible for MMA to technically interchange with 7 another carrier to indirectly deliver product. But he said 8 it would not be practical or economical.

9 Simpson had firsthand knowledge of MMA's efforts
10 to solicit Irving Paper Company's (indiscernible) business.
11 Although the testimony of Mr. Hansen on some of these issues 12 was blunted by the trustee on cross-examination, I conclude 13 that the persuasive testimony of Mr. Simpson on these facts 14 was not controverted. Based upon this and the other 15 evidence adduced at the hearing, I conclude that the 16 claimant railways satisfied their burden on the necessity 17 issue. I don't ascribe to the narrow view of what a 18 necessity is. I find that it is sufficient claims are for a 19 current expense, goods and services and bringing ordinary 20 operation of the rail.

21 The second element, the six-month element -- 22 there's no meaningful challenge as to that. So I conclude 23 that the claimant railways meet their burden.

24 Now turning to, I think, what's the heart of it is 25 the third element, that the goods or services were delivered

1 in the expectation that they be paid for out of current 2 operating revenues of the railway and not in reliance on the 3 railroad's general credit. I admit that element is not 4 easily applied and is susceptible to the arguments that 5 parties made in the closing arguments. As a matter of 6 common sense, these alternatives are not mutually exclusive.

7 A party dealing with a railroad might well rely on 8 both the current operating revenues of the railroad as well 9 as its general credit. A credit manager of any entity 10 dealing with a railroad could plausibly testify that it 11 relied on the current operating revenues of the railroad 12 rather than its general credit, or perhaps more closer to 13 the truth, that it relied more on the railroad's current 14 operating revenues than its general credit. Thus, arguably, 15 anybody dealing with a railroad within six months of 16 bankruptcy could potentially be entitled to a priority 17 claim.

18 Had the claimant railroads been dealing with MMA 19 in the manner in which it did prior to the oil shipments, 20 2012, this case would have been easier for me. And the 21 trustee's argument would have been more powerful for me.
22 When the oil started shipping, however, that arrangement 23 changed.

24 MMA could not -- as was testified at the hearing, 25 MMA could not afford to keep current on payments owed to the

1 claimant railways under the new reality of the new -- post-
2 2012. And it proposed an alternative, which the claimant
3 railways accepted. Under this new system, the interline 4 freight charges incurred in connection with oil shipments 5 would be carved out of the swap arrangement and instead, 6 those charges would be paid to the claimant railways on 7 MMA's receipt of payment from the ISS of the amounts owed to 8 MMA for such shipments.

9 Carl Hansen testified about the claimant railways' 10 reasons for doing so. Quote, "Once I was briefed a bit on 11 what this ISS was, I felt comfortable enough that monies 12 would be coming into MMA without any hiccups, so to speak, 13 and that shortly thereafter, within a matter of days, I 14 would be paid the monies owed by MMA for the transportation 15 of oil on our lines." Mr. Hansen emphasized at trial that 16 this new arrangement was not, in his view, based upon the 17 claimant railways' reliance on MMA's general credit 18 worthiness.

19 "Q: Mr. Hansen, in providing freight services in 20 connection with the interchange of traffic, the MMA, did 21 Irving Railroads rely on MMA's general credit worthiness?"

22 Mr. Hansen's answer -- Absolutely not.

23 Q: What did the Irving Railroads rely upon?

24 Answer by Mr. Hansen -- "We relied upon them being 25 paid out of the ISS system, which I felt was secure and that

1 meant I would be paid shortly thereafter." End of 2 Mr. Hansen's quotes here.

3 Mr. Simpson supported this testimony. Quote, "We 4 expected prompt payment. Because when ISS -- when they 5 received their money from the ISS, they were receiving their 6 share and our share. And that's what we were looking for.
7 When they got paid, we were to be paid."

8 Based on testimony like this as well as other 9 evidence presented at the hearing, I conclude that the 10 claimant railways met their burden as to the third element 11 of the 1171(b) claims. Testimony shows that, in order to 12 keep the interchange of services going between the parties, 13 claimant railways agreed to wait for the ISS system to 14 process payment and then to pay -- the ISS to pay them to 15 MMA before MMA would pay the claimant railways. I do not 16 conclude that this was reliance on MMA's credit, nor do I 17 conclude that this was some sort of special security 18 arrangement which excepts the claimant railways from the 19 protection of the six-months rule. I didn't find anything 20 in that deal or that arrangement that had incorporated 21 common conditions of the commercial credit, security 22 interests, and the like.

23 I do not find that the existence of the Wheeling 24 line of credit changes my conclusion. Mr. Hansen was not 25 aware that MMA had a line of credit with Wheeling, he so

1 testified. Mr. Simpson admitted he was aware of it, quote, 2 "anecdotally," end quote, but had no knowledge of how it,
3 quote, "worked," end quote, and was not familiar with it.
4 Nobody, according to the testimony, ever advised Mr. Hansen
5 or Mr. Simpson that MMA's ability to pay claimant railroads
6 was dependent on MMA being able to draw on the Wheeling line 7 of credit.

8 So based upon the unique facts and my analysis of 9 the equities asserted by MMA, on one hand, and the claimant 10 railroads, on the other, I conclude that the claimant 11 railways have met their burden. The claims shall be allowed 12 as 1171(b) claims.

13 Now, the stipulations indicate that the amount of 14 the claims will be determined at a subsequent hearing, if 15 required. I throw in as a suggestion -- and I've said a lot 16 here. I'm sure the parties want to digest it. And they can 17 figure out what kind of further process is required.

18 So my proposal, subject to both of your input, is 19 that you submit a brief status report in 14 days and the 20 status report indicate whether a further hearing's required.
21 If so, at that time, also submit a proposed joint pretrial 22 order. And you can contact the clerk's office to arrange 23 for the hearing time. But that's just my stab at a 24 proposal. And I'm open to ideas.

25 And maybe I begin with you, Mr. Keach?

1 MR. KEACH: Your Honor, I think my suggestion is 2 that Mr. Lepene and I talk with respect to the issues
3 relating to the amount. It may very well be that we can 4 stipulate as to the amount relatively quickly and actually 5 allow Your Honor to enter a sort of unified final judgment 6 based on that stipulation. And then the parties can decide 7 what they want to do with that input. But --

8 THE COURT: Okay. And one of the reasons that I 9 wanted to put all of this in this fashion is I thought that 10 somebody might be not happy with what I'm doing. So I 11 wanted to try to streamline it as best I could.

12 So fine. Why don't we do that? What do you 13 think? Fourteen days?

14 MR. KEACH: Easily within 14 days. I suspect 15 sooner. I'm not sure about Mr. Lepene's schedule, but I 16 suspect it's really not going to be that difficult.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 Mr. Lepene, your thoughts on this?

19 MR. LEPENE: I would agree with Mr. Keach and what 20 you have proposed, Your Honor. And I will plan to call 21 Mr. Keach. And I'm sure we can accomplish that within 14 22 days.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

24 Mr. Keach, anything else this morning?

25 MR. KEACH: Nothing further, Your Honor. Thank

1 you.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 Mr. Lepene, anything from you?

4 MR. LEPENE: Nothing further, Your Honor. Thank 5 you.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 The Court will be adjourned.

8 THE DEPUTY: All rise.

9 (Whereupon, these proceedings were concluded at 9:29 10 AM)

Debtor. )

ORDER SUSTAINING IN PART AND OVERRULING IN PART TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION TO PROOFS OF CLAIM FILED BY NEW BRUNSWICK SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY LIMITED AND MAINE NORTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY
LIMITED ON THE BASIS THAT CERTAIN OF SUCH CLAIMS ARE DUPLICATIVE
OF OTHERS, AND SUCH OTHERS ARE IMPROPERLY ASSERTED AS ADMINISTRATIVE AND/OR PRIORITY CLAIMS

This matter came before the Court on the Trustee's Objection to Proofs of Claim Filed by New Brunswick Southern Railway Company Limited and Maine Northern Railway Company Limited on the Basis that Certain of Such Claims Are Duplicative of Others, and Such Others Are Improperly Asserted as Secured and/or Priority Claims (the "Objection") (Docket Entry "DE" 1826) filed by Robert J. Keach, the chapter 11 trustee (the "Trustee") of Montreal Maine & Atlantic Railway, Ltd. (the "Debtor" or "MMA"), in relation to (a) Proofs of Claim No. No. 242-1 (the "MN Duplicate Claim") and 257-1 ("Claim 257") filed by Maine Northern Railway Company Limited ("MN Railway") and (b) Proofs of Claim No. 243-1 ("NB Duplicate Claim," and together with the MN Duplicate Claim, the "Duplicate Claims") and 259-1 ("Claim 259," and together with Claim 257, the "Asserted 1171(b) Claims") filed by New Brunswick Southern Railway Company Limited ("NB Railway", and together with MN Railway, the "Claimant Railways"). After such notice and opportunity for hearing as was required by the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Code"), the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the Local

Bankruptcy Rules for the District of Maine, and after due consideration of, among other things, the Objection, the Response of the Claimant Railways to the Objection (DE 1855), the Trustee's Reply (DE 1878), the Stipulations of the parties (the "Stipulations") (DE 1877), the admissions and other filings of the parties, and the testimony and documentary evidence presented at the November 20, 2015 evidentiary hearing held in this matter (the "Hearing"); and for the reasons set forth on the record by the Court on February 5, 2016<sup>1</sup>, the Court made certain findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7002. Several of those factual findings and conclusions of law are as follows<sup>2</sup>:

A. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a) and 1334(b), and Rule 83.6 of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Maine, this Court has jurisdiction over the Objection, including but not limited to, the Asserted 1171(b) Claims and the Duplicate Claims.

B. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), and the Court has constitutional authority to enter judgment in this matter.

C. Pursuant to the Stipulations, the only issue addressed at the Hearing was whether the Asserted 1171(b) Claims claims qualify as "six-month" claims entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §1171(b) of the Code. If so, the amount of such claims would be determined at a subsequent hearing, if required.

D. Based upon the unique facts of this matter and the Court's analysis of the equities asserted by MMA, on the one hand, and the Claimant Railways, on the other, the Claimant Railways met their burden of establishing that the Asserted 1171(b) Claims qualify as claims that are entitled to priority under §1171(b) of the Code because:

<sup>2</sup> This Order does not enumerate all of the factual findings and conclusions of law set forth at the Hearing and no special significance is intended by that fact.

(1) the Asserted 1171(b) Claims represent current operating expenses that were necessarily incurred by MMA in connection with its on-going operations;

(2) the Asserted 1171(b) Claims were incurred within six months prior to the commencement of this case; and

(3) the services that are the subject of the Asserted 1171(b) Claims were provided to MMA with the expectation that they would be paid for out of the current operating revenues of MMA, and not in reliance on its general creditworthiness.

For these reasons, as well as those set forth on the record at the Hearing, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

1. The Objection is sustained in part and overruled in part, as set forth herein.
2. The Duplicate Claims shall be disallowed in their entireties and expunged from the Debtor's claims register.
3. The Asserted 1171(b) Claims, to the extent allowed, are afforded priority status under § 1171(b). The amount of the Asserted 1171(b) Claims is not determined by this Order, and thus those Asserted 1171(b) Claims are not allowed in any amount at this time. The Trustee's rights to object to the amount of the Asserted 1171(b) Claims are fully reserved.
4. Notwithstanding the minute entry at DE 1947, this Order constitutes the Court's ruling and judgment on the matters read into the record on February 5, 2016. The time period within which parties must appeal this Order in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules thus runs from the date hereof.

FRA is to submit a revised form of order dealing with its motion to determine allocation, agreed to among FRA, the Trustee, and Wheeling. Proposed Order due by 08/26/2014. With respect to the Province of Quebec's request for a joint hearing regarding the allocation of the purchase price between the U.S. and Canadian assets, the Court will coordinate with the Canadian court, and likely issue a joint or coordinated order. FRA reported that there is $1 million of the purchase price which has not already been distributed. The Province of Quebec agreed that it would limit its request for relief to no more than $1.5 million. (LJS) (Entered: 08/19/2014)
